

BUCKINGHAM TOWN COUNCILLORS

Buckingham Town Council is made up of 17 elected councillors from 4 wards. Each councillor sits on various committees (details of the committees can be found on the Committees pages of our website). There are four wards in Buckingham, with eight councillors for Buckingham South, seven councillors for Buckingham North and one each for the wards of Fishers Field and Highlands & Watchcroft – making a total of 17 councillors.

Cllr. Robina Ahmed – A Town Councillor since 2020, Robina wanted to become a town councillor in order to help make the town a better place for its residents and balance its history and culture with the modern world.

Cllr. Mark Cole JP – This will be my second term on BTC, and I will continue to work for the town on planning and neighbourhood matters.

Cllr. Geraldine Collins – It is a privilege to continue to serve as Town councillor. My aim has always been to ensure Buckingham is a safe, vibrant and pleasant community for all to enjoy.

Cllr. Fran Davies – Fran grew up in Bucks and has lived in the Buckingham area for 19 years, her priorities include the environment and vitality of our town and equality of opportunity for all.

Cllr. Margaret Gateley – I moved to Buckingham in 1988 and became a Councillor 5 years ago. My priorities are the climate emergency and our town's post pandemic recovery.

Cllr. Jon Harvey – Jon is working with local people towards a sustainable town and world, in which everyone has dreams and ambitions, and the wherewithal to achieve them.

Cllr. Sue Hetherington - Cllr. Sue Hetherington: Resident of Gawcott since December 2017. I look forward to serving on our town council, in particular regarding our natural environment.

Cllr. Andy Mahi – Cllr. Andy Mahi: Councillor for 14 years, I am a previous Mayor and have chaired the Town Centre and Events Committee. I particularly enjoy facilitating Bonfire and Fireworks.

Cllr. Howard Mordue – I moved to Buckingham in 1973 and was in the printing industry. I am interested in the economic development of Buckingham as long as it protects the environment and its wildlife.

Cllr. Lisa O'Donoghue – The past 10 years I've been involved with youth engagement, planning, environmental issues and our town's vibrancy and I'm so pleased to serve another term.

Cllr. Ade Osibogun – Ade Osibogun is an alumnus of the University of Buckingham and joins the Town Council with his experience as a legal practitioner and arbitrator.

Cllr. Anthony Ralph - By balancing the best of the new, while protecting the best of the old, is how I will continue to serve the community.

Cllr. Anja Schaefer - Anja Schaefer is a senior lecturer in management at the Open University, with interests in sustainability and small business. In her free time, she loves to walk the Buckinghamshire countryside.

Cllr. Robin Stuchbury – So pleased to serve Buckingham and make it even better place to live. I will challenge any attempts to diminish the local voices of the community

Cllr. Martin Try – Lived in the town for 35 years, been a councillor since 2007 ensuring our fantastic town stays a great place to live, work or visit.

Cllr. Warren Whyte – I have lived in Buckingham for 18 years, and work here too. I am proud to champion Buckingham far and wide, including in my role as a Buckinghamshire Councillor.

Cllr. Ryan Willet – I am 25 and have always lived in Buckingham, I am devoted to the people here. I will roll up my sleeves and better Buckingham's future.
